

BOTH SIDES SATISFIED WITH OPENING DAY OF BIG STRIKE

SEVEN SHOT IN RIOTING AT NEW CASTLE, PA.

Accurate Estimate of Number of Men Obeying Steel Strike Order Not Obtainable—Most Plants in Pittsburgh District Operated According to Officials—Effectiveness of Strike Differs Between Officials and Labor Leaders.

At the end of the opening day of economic war between organized labor and the greater part of the iron and steel industry of the country, both sides rested last night apparently satisfied with reports received from the far-flung battle line, reaching into twenty states and affecting, directly or indirectly, half a million workers. After the first test of strength, industrial leaders and commanders of labor's legions were willing to admit they faced a struggle which might prove long and bitter.

Grim evidence of preparations made for the industrial conflict were seen in the armed guards surrounding all the mills, but the first day of the strike ended with no signs of serious disorder, except in New Castle, Pa., where seven persons were shot in rioting following an alleged attempt to prevent workers from entering a plant.

Until the first smoke of battle rolls away an accurate estimate of the number of workers who marched out in obedience to the strike order and the number who remained at their posts is not obtainable.

From strike headquarters in Pittsburgh came claims that 284,000 men had taken their places in the ranks of the strikers, but, although no statement was forthcoming from the steel corporation's headquarters in New York, company officials in the zone of action hastened to challenge the estimate of labor leaders.

Operate Most Plants.—The steel corporation, against which the main offensive is directed, was able to operate most of its plants in the Pittsburgh district, according to company officials. In the Chicago steel center some of the largest plants were forced to close down, but others operated on a reduced scale.

It was in the Mahoning Valley that the strikers seemed to make the most headway for, with three large steel mills in the Youngstown district shutdown and others running only part capacity, the steel producing industry in that section was reported to be fast approaching general paralysis.

In the Cleveland district too the strikers apparently made a successful attack. Only four of the twenty plants were in operation and, according to labor leaders, 13,000 men are affected.

Telegraph wires leading in headquarters of both capital and labor were kept warm as report followed report on conditions at 145 plants affected by the strike order. As it became evident that neither the corporation had been able to keep all its plants in operation nor the strikers had been able to produce a complete tieup of the industry, leaders began to settle down to the prospect of a long fight. In this connection it was announced that an important parley of union labor chiefs would be held tomorrow when it is understood the question of financing the strike will be considered.

Officers of the Carnegie Company, the steel corporation's largest subsidiary in Pittsburgh, claimed that, although their forces had been depleted by desertions, they had been able to re-organize their workers so as to keep all of the important mills operating at almost 100 per cent. This brought emphatic denials from the labor camp.

Blat Furnaces Crippled.—Steel officials admitted that in some cases blast furnaces which they said they always had regarded as their most vulnerable spots had been badly crippled. The situation was met by banking some furnaces and concentrating the remaining workers on others.

An important announcement came during the day from representatives of the 35,000 workers employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company, to the effect that they would not walk out pending an attempt to obtain a conference with company officials.

An example of the wide difference between estimates made by labor leaders and corporation officials concerning the number of strikers is found in Pittsburgh. According to William Z. Foster, secretary of the national committee of steel workers, 71,000 men are out, while in opposing quarters the number was set at 15,000.

In the Chicago district company officials estimated that from 70 to 90 per cent of their workers had remained loyal while at strike headquarters it was claimed 67,500 had obeyed the strike call.

Labor leaders in the Youngstown district stated 30,500 men were out in the district proper and 55,000 in the entire district which

STEEL STRIKE NOTES

Milwaukee, Wis.—Strike leaders claim 1,200 men are out, while officials of the company refused to give out figures.

Chicago.—About 1,000 Illinois Steel Company employees slept in chairs on the floor in the company's administration building to night because they feared violence if they attempted to go to their homes.

Gary, Ind.—Men leaving work reported the steel plants well stocked with provisions. Union leaders said 95 per cent of the men had struck. All plants were picketed.

Columbus, O.—Vice-President Marshall in a speech said "Whenever the American people made up their minds in the controversy it would be settled as the American people thought it should be."

Cleveland, O.—Steel production reported almost at a standstill. Union officials said every industrial railroad employee had quit, but Stephen W. Tener, American Steel & Wire Company employment director said eight crews were working on the Newberg and south shore road.

Birmingham, Ala.—Less than 500 men reported to have answered the strike call and plants said to be operating under practically normal conditions.

Youngstown, O.—Three large plants employing 16,000 men closed and others running at part capacity, officials stated.

Pueblo, Colo.—Six thousand men quit. J. A. Welburne, president Colorado Fuel & Iron Company, said mills would stay closed until employees returned to work.

New Castle, Pa., Sept. 22.—Seven persons were shot, one probably fatally, in rioting which broke out at the Carnegie Steel Company's plant here late today.

The trouble started when a crowd of about 400 persons attempted to prevent mill workers from entering the plant. About twenty workmen were being assaulted when the mill guards went to their rescue. They were met with a volley of bricks, stones and clubs. They drew their revolvers and attempted to hold the mob at bay but the shower of missiles continued. When the situation appeared to be getting beyond control the guards are alleged to have opened fire on the crowd. Two men were shot. A man shot thru the stomach is reported to be in a local hospital in a critical condition. A boy was also wounded. Three other persons were struck by bullets but not seriously hurt.

Following the shooting the mill guards had little difficulty in clearing the streets about the plant. Another outbreak occurred today at the plant of the Shenango Tin Plate Company, in which two local policemen were wounded while attempting to protect millworkers. One officer was stabbed and another was shot. Their wounds were not serious.

Disorders Reported.—Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 22.—Disorders were in evidence to night in several places in the Pittsburgh district. The most serious occurrence was at New Castle, Pa., fifty miles from Pittsburgh. Excepting a small disturbance in Clariton in the morning, the day passed in comparative quiet. At night, however, when night shifts were going out, there were disorders reported from a number of places.

During a melee in front of the zinc plant of the American Steel & Wire company at Donora, early this evening, one man was shot and slightly wounded. Several other persons suffered minor bruises. The trouble started when the crowd attempted to stop an automobile carrying alleged strike breakers from entering the plant.

Riding into a crowd at an entrance of the Carnegie company's plant at Homestead, after it had refused to disperse, state troopers tonight arrested eleven men.

Another outbreak occurred shortly afterward at another point in Homestead where a crowd had assembled. The state police charged and it is alleged used their sticks freely but none was seriously hurt.

At Clariton tonight troops were called to break up a gathering of workers near a steel plant. Two arrests were made and the crowd was dispersed. Early this morning a crowd clashed with fourteen persons being arrested for alleged rioting.

Two Injured.—Two men were injured in an outbreak which occurred at the entrance to the Farrell, Pa., plant of the American Steel and Wire company this evening during a change of shifts. They were attacked by a crowd of about 2,000 persons while entering the plant. The trouble was quelled by mill guards and borough police.

Although there were serious outbreaks in McKeesport, state troopers dispersed crowds of men

AMERICAN ARMY OF 300,000 MEN IS SUFFICIENT

Declares Major-General McAndrew Before House Military Committee

URGES TRAINING FOR YOUTHS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—America's future military policy, as advocated today before the house military committee by Major General J. W. McAndrew, chief of staff of the American Expeditionary Forces, throughout the war, should call for "peace on our own terms."

This, he said, can be assured by control of the Panama Canal and the Hawaiian Islands.

Disagrees With General Staff.—Altho General McAndrew told the committee he was "loathe to disagree with the general staff," he took issue with its reorganization plan for a force of 500,000 men, proposing instead a force of 300,000 at the utmost. While joining with the general staff in advocating universal training for 19 year old youths, General McAndrew disagreed with its proposed three months period of training, declaring it was "inadequate" and should be at least six months.

General McAndrew recommended that the skeleton of twenty one divisions, a field army of 1-250,000 men as proposed by the general staff be approved, but he suggested that these divisions with the exception of four be skeletonized to six or seven thousand men, instead of a larger number, as proposed by the war department. He also agreed with the department plan for a top heavy officers' personnel, explaining these were needed for universal training and even if such a system were not adopted their retention would be advisable for quick enlargement for the army in an emergency.

The peace time army of 300,000 men, General McAndrew said, should be distributed with one complete division at the Panama Canal, another at Hawaii, another with additional troops if necessary along the Mexican border; small forces in the Philippines and Alaska, and the remainder at home for coast defense and training.

Must Safeguard Hawaii.—"By all means," he asserted, "we must safeguard Hawaii. Its loss in time of war would put Japan or any combination of powers on the tank of our communications to Asia and the Philippines. It is likely that in any war in the Pacific we might not at first have the preponderance of naval strength, and the army must maintain the islands until reinforcements are brought from the Atlantic fleet by way of the canal. With one division and the shore batteries, we could keep a navy off for some time, because of the few landing places."

Answering inquiries as to disarmament under a league of nations, General McAndrew said it or any similar organization would not operate effectively for some time, and that because of unsettled world conditions it seemed advisable to maintain what might be called a large army, until world affairs were readjusted.

Universal Training Favored.—Universal training was advocated as "the best line of defense" for which General McAndrew said, "we should give more money than to a regular army." Second to universal training, he said, a large number of officers was the best asset for defense.

From his experience abroad, General McAndrew said he approved the recent statement of Major General Leonard Wood before a senate committee that universal training would save the lives of many men in case of war. Permanent adoption of the war scale of pay for soldiers was urged by General McAndrew, whether he advocated promotion of officers by selection from a single list; that "every encouragement" be given the reserve officers' corps; that the air service be maintained as a part of both army and navy; and that the tank corps be developed so as to "keep abreast with the world."

11 DAYS WITHOUT FOOD OR WATER.—MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 22.—Eleven days without food or water, twelve survivors of the recent hurricane huddled in a lighthouse on North Elbow Cay, a small island in the Florida straits, which save for the lighthouse was swept clean of every vestige of human habitation during the storm, were located yesterday by a submarine chaser which brought back a story of devastation and human suffering unsurpassed by any that has come from the storm area.

GEN. ROBILANT REPLACED.—Rome, Saturday, Sept. 20.—General Robilant, chief of the Italian forces maintaining order along the line of demarcation fixed by the armistice has been replaced by General Badoglio, chief of staff of General Diaz and second in command of the Italian armies.

AWARDED SERVICE CROSS.—Washington, Sept. 22.—General Pershing has awarded the distinguished service cross to Sergeant Frank U. Simon of La Grange, Ill.

DISMISS CASE AGAINST FRENCH SENATOR.—Paris, Sept. 22.—The case against Senator Charles Humbert growing out of alleged "American contracts" has been dismissed by the court.

LAND U. S. MARINES IN FIUME

Rome, Sept. 22.—American marines have been landed at Buccari, a small town on an arm of the Gulf of Quarnero, about ten miles southeast of Fiume, says a dispatch to the Messaggero. One American ship is in Fiume harbor, according to advices, but anchorage is a considerable distance from the city.

Washington, Sept. 22.—No report of the landing of American marines near Fiume has been received at the navy department.

Italy Appeals to Allied Powers for Aid In Fiume

London, Sept. 22.—(By The Associated Press)—The Italian government has appealed to the allied powers to send an allied force, exclusive of Italians, to drive D'Annunzio out of Fiume, according to a report here tonight, which is considered reliable.

It is understood that the American naval authorities here, who control the operations in the Adriatic, have declined any assistance whatsoever, pending final decision from Washington or the peace delegates in Paris.

The Italian government it is reported has pointed out in its appeal that it would be difficult for Italy to handle the situation in view of D'Annunzio's popularity with the Italian people, and also because of the fact that the Fiume decision has been a thorn in the side of the Italians.

It is understood the Italian government declared that it did not wish to make the slightest move against the decision of the peace conference but inferred that if D'Annunzio's hold on Fiume was to be weakened it must be done by other than Italian troops.

The Associated Press learns that even should the appeal be favorably received no United States troops are available and pending instructions from high authority, United States naval vessels would stay out the three mile limit.

Submit Plans to Wilson.—Rome, Saturday, Sept. 20.—(By The Associated Press)—From conversations which several senators and deputies have had with Premier Nitti and Foreign Minister Tittoni it seems that two plans were submitted to President Wilson concerning Fiume, both of them endorsed by France and England.

According to one, Fiume would be given to Italy but its hinterland, together with Eastern Istria, would be given by Italy to Jugoslavians.

The latter project would make Fiume an independent territory and the hinterland together with Eastern Istria would become an independent state ruled by an international commission or by the league of nations.

The latter project would be practically the same as advocated by Andre Tardieu some months ago.

Wilson's Position Unchanged.—Stockton, Calif., Sept. 22.—Although white house officials reported President Wilson's train declined today to discuss published reports of a new agreement for disposition of Fiume, they indicated that there had been no change in the president's position on the subject.

Several times during his speaking tour Mr. Wilson has referred in his addresses to Italy's desire to acquire Fiume, declaring it was a claim based on strategic grounds rather than on the principle of nationality. Awards of territory for strategic purposes, he said in that connection, were avoided by the peace conference because under the new order set up by the league of nations strategic considerations were supplanted by considerations of nationality and self-determination.

In line with these declarations it was indicated today that if any new proposal had been made to give Fiume to Italy it had not been received favorably by the president. Officials would not predict, however, whether he would hold out indefinitely against such a settlement if all the other interested parties agreed to it.

STATE SENATOR HELD TO GRAND JURY.—Chicago, Sept. 22.—Federal Judge Landis, who is investigating the importation of beer from Wisconsin to Chicago, today held Senator Patrick J. Carroll of Illinois to the grand jury in bonds of $20,000. Carroll refused to answer any questions put to him by the judge with regard to the alleged illegal traffic.

Thirty Chicago saloon keepers and several others, including Anthony Freitch, bookkeeper at Kenosha for the Blatz Brewing Company were before the judge today.

FOUR JURORS ACCEPTED.—Chicago, Sept. 22.—Four jurors were accepted today on the usual basis to decide the guilt or innocence of eight officials of the Milk Producers association indicted "for conspiracy to fix milk prices."

THOUSANDS HEAR WILSON DEFEND TREATY IN RENO

Contrasts Versailles Conference with Congress at Vienna.

WORLD MUST HAVE PEACE

RENO, Nev., Sept. 22.—Contrasting the peace conference at Versailles with the congress at Vienna, President Wilson declared in an address here tonight, that the Vienna peace effort had failed because all of the governments represented there were in the hands of the "small coterie of autocrats."

At Versailles, the president said, the league of nations covenant was drawn up by great democracies so that the autocracies never again could enslave the peoples of the world. One of the purposes of the Vienna conference, Mr. Wilson asserted, was to form such a union as would hold in check the growing tide of democracy. The chief concern of the delegates who sat at Versailles, he added, was to accomplish exactly the opposite.

Speaking in a theatre here to a crowd of about 2,000 the president frequently was interrupted by applause. By an electrical device his words were carried to three other theaters holding 3,000 persons each. The president was welcomed by crowds which cheered him at the railway station and along the line of an automobile ride thru the principal streets.

Introduced by Republican.—Mr. Wilson was introduced by Charles Chandler, a Republican lawyer, who said he denied the right of "a few prominent senators" to commit the Republican party to opposition of the peace treaty. The treaty, he declared, contained "good Republican doctrines."

In his reference to the congress of Vienna the president said that the effort there made to stifle revolution and democracy had been unsuccessful in every nation but Germany.

It was the invocation of the Monroe Doctrine, he said, that broke the backbone of autocracy's effort to overwhelm South America, and added that at Versailles the cycle of liberty had been completed by application of the Monroe Doctrine to the whole world.

Unlike the Vienna congress the present continued, the conference at Versailles was made up of men who knew they were the servants and not the masters of the peoples. As the people's servants, he said, they had carried out their promise of a permanent peace.

"This treaty was not written, essentially speaking, in Paris," he said. "It was written at Chateau Thierry, in Belleau Wood and in the Argonne. Our men did not fight with the purpose of coming back and having the same thing happen again. They fought with the purpose of seeing the thing thru and we are going to see it thru."

Pays Tribute to West.—Paying a tribute to the frontier spirit of the west, the president continued, the conference at Versailles was made up of men who knew they were the servants and not the masters of the peoples. As the people's servants, he said, they had carried out their promise of a permanent peace.

Referring to the "insubordinate restlessness" prevailing in Europe and Asia, Mr. Wilson asserted that the world not only desired peace, but must have it. America only, he said, could guarantee such a peace.

Asking his hearers whether they had not heard of organizations in America, "the purpose of which is nothing less than to overturn the government itself," he added that it was important to America also that unrest be quieted.

MINE TAXATION LAWS NEEDED.—Chicago, Sept. 22.—Need of an equitable basis of mine taxation to enable the government to recover $150,000,000 he said was due from mine owners of the nation was urged by Dr. L. C. Gratton, representing the department of internal revenue, before the opening session of the 120th meeting of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers today.

The speaker said no taxes had been collected by the government from the mines since 1917, because a basis of taxation had not been worked out. He added that 15,000 mines were affected.

Delegates to the meeting, who number about 1,000 said it was "hardly an effort would be made during the convention to outline recommendations to the government on the taxation problem."

OFFICERS TRANSFERRED.—Camp Grant, Ill., Sept. 22.—Thirty-five Camp Grant officers among them a number of Purple Heart veterans, were today transferred to the Sixth division by Col. Carl Reichman, chief of the demobilization group at the camp, heads the list.

NO FEAR OF FOOD SHORTAGE

Brussels, Sunday, Sept. 21.—"The world need have no fear of a food shortage during the coming winter, providing there is proper care in handling the problem and proper distribution," said George H. Roberts, British food controller and one of the delegates to the supreme economic council, in session here today. Other delegates concurred in this view.

Mr. Roberts is laying special emphasis on the necessity of reorganizing transportation service to meet food problems.

No Action Taken On Demands For Increased Wages

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 22.—Action on the demands for a sixty per cent increase in wages, reduction of the working day from eight hours actual labor "at the face" of the coal seam to six hours underground, counting time taken to go from the shaft mouth and return, and other features of the mine workers' program, was put over until tomorrow by the convention of United Mine Workers of America today. A proposal backed by the organization forces to refer the question to a committee to report at the next biennial convention was carried by a standing vote, but the opposition called for a roll call which occupied the entire afternoon and evening. A resolution to extend sympathy and support to the striking steel workers, but only by such measures as can legally be employed under the union agreements with the operators, was adopted. The convention thereby disposing of the proposal to call strikes in aid of the steel men wherever union mined coal was being used to the detriment of the steel strikers' cause.

The Washington agreement under which the miners are now working forbids strikes during the lifetime of the agreement.

The resolution gave as a further reason against indulging in any sympathetic strike at this time, the fact that the miners' organization is itself facing the possibility of a national coal strike to enforce its demands, which, if called, would tax the miner's resources to the uttermost.

The convention voted to abandon the long established political policy of the labor movement, as expressed by the American Federation of Labor.

Holding that the Cummins bill now pending in the senate would constitute a denial of an inherent right of labor to strike, the convention pledged the miners' support to the railwaymen in fighting this measure. It demanded the withdrawal of American troops from Russia in order to permit the Russian people to choose their own type of administration. The same resolution calls for self-determination for Ireland and other small nationalities capable of self-government.

MOB TAKES CONTROL OF DRUMRIGHT, OKLA.—DRUMRIGHT, Okla., Sept. 22.—A mob took control of Drumright late tonight following a demonstration in connection with a strike of telephone operators, during which the members of the police force were driven from the town and the chief of police was disarmed and threatened with death unless he resigned his office.

Three young women operators who refused to join the strike are held prisoners at the telephone company's plant by the mob. The trouble is said to have been the outcome of the clubbing of a picket by a policeman.

TWO TRAINMEN INSTANTLY KILLED.—GALESBURG, Ill., Sept. 22.—Len Benton, engineer, and Billy Lovett, brakeman, were instantly killed near London Mills at 5 o'clock last evening when the trestle bridge of the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad gave way, three quarters of a mile from London Mills. The engine, five coal cars, a car of oil and two box cars were wrecked. The engine was severely scalded before he was pulled from the cab. Brakeman Lovett is still pinned under the engine this morning.

CONSTRUCT TRENCHES AROUND FIUME.—Geneva, Sept. 22.—(By The Associated Press.)—Dispatches from Austrian and Serbian sources say that Italian regulars under General Badoglio have constructed a line of trenches around Fiume while D'Annunzio's force have built defenses a few hundred yards inside the circle.

The soldiers of the two sides are fraternizing and officers from the two camps dine together. It is said train loads of food have been allowed to pass the blockade line into the city.

TWO FLIERS KILLED.—Long Beach, Calif., Sept. 22.—D. A. Gwartney and Edwin Birnie, both of Long Beach, were killed yesterday when the airplane in which they were flying near this city fell into a tail spin at a height of 500 feet.

GALLERIES SHOW APPROVAL OF REEDS ATTACK ON LEAGUE

Greatest Demonstration Since Treaty Has Been Before Senate

BITTER ATTACK UPON WILSON

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—At the end of a four hour attack on the league of nations by Senator Reed of Missouri, a Democrat, who has refused to stand with his party for unreserved ratification of the peace treaty of which the league covenant is a part, the senate galleries late today started a demonstration that had to wear itself out and then hissed violent disapproval when the cheering was condemned from the floor.

There has been no outburst like it since the treaty fight was put sharply before the senate by the foreign relations committee. But there were indications today, soon after Senator Reed began his speech, that the crowds swarming for admittance at all doors were in sympathy with his argument. Mindful of the evidence of feeling in the galleries, Senator Cummings, president pro tempore, gave warning that while applause might be tolerated, despite senate rules, at the end of the address, it would not be permitted at other times. Threats to clear the galleries if repeated had no effect and no attempt was made to enforce the long standing rule.

Cheering From Every Gallery.—When Senator Reed, with arms lifted high, closed his speech and became silent, the galleries, followed by cheering from every gallery.

Men in uniform joined in the demonstration and many women stood, waved their arms wildly and shouted with the men.

Senator Ashurst, Democrat of Arizona, sitting nearest Senator Reed and first to congratulate him shouted loudly for order a moment later and the crowds, not knowing what to expect, suddenly became silent. But the sudden orderliness of the senate did not prevail long for as the spectators realized that their conduct was being condemned a wave of hissing swept through the chamber, while gallery guards struggled unsuccessfully to subdue and eject those responsible for it.

Still speaking to the crowds, Senator Ashurst declared the fate of nations was at stake while "the nations were attempting to make the senate of the United States a police court" and appealed by name to Senators Lodge and Hitchcock, the party leaders, to stop it. The Arizona senator declared the galleries would not applaud a decision of the highest court, which had never been called upon to decide a question of such tremendous importance to the world.

The appeal was met with another volley of hissing, to which the Arizona senator replied that he would stand and cease hissed. Meanwhile the chair was pounding for order and the crowds began piling out pell mell, while members on the floor were swarming around Senator Reed.

Lodge Moves to Adjourn.—Senator Lodge finally was recognized above the hubbub and leaning on his desk and smiling, addressed the chair:

"In order to return to that serene and calm atmosphere desired by the senator from Arizona, I move that we adjourn," and there was no dissent to the laughter of "ayes."

"How to deal with the conduct of people who attend the senate session to hear the treaty debate was a question of some concern tonight to senators who discussed it formally in view of the events of the afternoon. Treaties previously have been conceded in executive session but that custom was abolished so far as the pending pact is concerned. The suggestion came from many members, however, that it might be necessary to close the galleries if another demonstration like that today was attempted."

After he had been interrupted repeatedly by Senator Jones, Democrats.

G. O. P. COOK COUNTY FACTIONS IN FINISH FIGHT NEXT YEAR

It's to be a finish fight in 1920 between the three Republican factions in Cook county, says E. O. Phillips in Sunday's Chicago Tribune. Three complete factional slates will be in the field for the juicy county ticket nominations and the tentative slate making already has started in each of the camps.

This prospect includes a politically bloody contest for United States senator and a tree for all for the governorship that will open next month with at least ten starters.

Only one possibility can overturn this complicated program for Illinois Republicans next year.

and that is the failure of the Republican national convention next June to nominate Governor Lowden for president of the United States. If he is not a candidate for president, nothing except his absolute refusal to run again for governor can prevent his renomination, and if the force of circumstances brings this about, he will have a clear field and probably no primary opponent for the gubernatorial nomination.

See Lowden Nominée. The wiser of the Republican politicians who are looking considerably into the future, figure that under such conditions, the chances for a tri-partite agreement in Chicago would be somewhat enhanced.

As a matter of real politics, based upon available information gleaned the country over, the men who are playing the big game in Illinois—at least 90 per cent of them—figure that Gov. Lowden's chances to be nominated for the presidency are superior by far to those of any other candidate who has been suggested. More than 50 per cent of the leaders in Illinois are firmly confident that Gov. Lowden will be the national nominee and for that reason they are prepared to start without much further delay in the senatorial, state, and local campaigns, eliminating the governor from purely state political consideration.

The foregoing epitomizes the existent state of affairs, as gathered from inside statements that come from men qualified to speak for each of the three factions in Chicago.

City Hall to Have Complete Ticket.

At present, therefore, a general prospectus would carry the forecast that former Gov. Charles S. Deneen, as a candidate for United States senator, will head the Deneen slate. The city hall will have a complete ticket that may have as its senatorial candidate either Congressman Martin B. Madden or Congressman William E. Mason, while there is a distinct possibility that the Brundage organization may determine to go through with Congressman William B. McKinley as its favorite for the senatorship. Edward D. Shurtleff, in such event, is figured as a downstate candidate running independently of any Cook county alliance.

For the Republican nomination for governor, with the proviso that Governor Lowden is eliminated, the following entries may be expected: Attorney General Brundage, Lieut. Gov. Oglesby, State Auditor Russel, Secretary of State Emmerson, State Treasurer Sterling, Congressman Frank L. Smith, former State Treasurer Len Small, Mayor E. N. Woodruff of Peoria, John H. Harrison of Danville, and possibly Congressman William A. Rodenberg of St. Louis. Col. B. M. Chipfield may be a candidate either for senator or for governor, but for one or the other, with the indications now that he will continue, as he has announced, in the race for senator.

Delegation Makeup Not Involved. The somewhat chaotic state of senatorial and state ticket matters doesn't involve the makeup of the Illinois delegation to the national convention, in the opinion of party leaders. As nearly as anything of fifty-eight real friends from Illinois. If he is nominated for president, it is reasonable to believe that the national committeeman from Illinois will be one of his closest friends, who would take a most active part in the direct management of the presidential campaign.

Otherwise the election of a national committeeman will be taken up after the presidential nomination shall have been made. Mayor Thompson, if he cares to succeed himself as national committeeman, which perhaps he doesn't, according to some reports, probably could be re-elected.

All of these contingencies are to be taken into consideration in the conferences that start tomorrow night. The Brundage forces will be the first to get going, at a session that may determine to enter the campaign forthwith, without alliances with any other faction. The Deneen leaders have been conferring informally, and will get down to cases this week. It is understood that the city hall has a very definite plan of action mapped out that will be disclosed not later than the Republican county convention, Oct. 2.

Weariness.
If you're tired, O toiling brothers, of the chores you have to do, there are forty million others who are just as tired as you. Sometimes when my back is aching, and my feet are bad and sore, I remark, "It's no use making earnest efforts any more; for I'm weary of my burden, and my heart is cold as ice; and I fail to see a guerdon I consider worth the price. Oh, I'm tired of splitting kindling and I'm tired of packing coal; all the dreams I had are dwindling, and my hopes are in the hole. All the jobs I do are bores and I'm weary of it all; I am tired of winding watches, I am tired of playing ball." And I look around for pity, and I find to my surprise that the whole immoral city fairly swarms with weary guys. They are tired of digging 'tators, tired of doging the police, tired of shoeing alligators, tired of herding ducks and geese. They are weary, ever, always, tired of all this world provides; they are tired of growing galways, tired of tanning children's hides. So I'm tired of being weary when I hear the others sob; though the path of life be dreary, I won't travel with the mob.

URANIA LODGE HOLDS ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Members Turn out in Force After Two Months Vacation—Plan Annual Banquet for Oct. 9th.

After a vacation of about two months from lodge work members of Urania Lodge No. 243 I. O. O. F., met at their hall Monday night in an enthusiastic and enjoyable meeting.

Four candidates, John S. Johnson, Pearl A. Pickle, Harry G. Dwyer, and John W. McHenry, took the initiatory degree.

There was a large attendance of the members present to witness the work and enjoy the evening socially. Charles Goody, Allan Fernandes, Charles Baisley and other members of the refreshment committee served delicious "cats" at the close of the meeting.

Plans were formulated at the session for the annual banquet which will be held Oct. 9th. While the members of Urania are ever on the lookout for suitable candidate material, yet the banquet will mark the start of another big membership campaign by this lodge.

Urania also will be well represented at Murrayville next Thursday night when the Morgan County Odd Fellows meeting will be held there. The lodge plans to send their degree staff and also take with them some candidates beside a large number of members.

Birthday of Mrs.

Farrington Celebrated.
For some time Mrs. William Farrington, 739 South Church street, will pleasantly remember her birthday of this year. A goodly number of her friends were aware of the anniversary and decided to have it suitably honored and to that end they gathered at the home of the lady Sunday evening armed with many tokens which the recipient will highly prize, and with nice refreshments of ice cream and cake. Music and sociability were the order of the evening until time for departure. Those present were Mrs. Callender, Mr. and Mrs. Leitze, Mrs. Nannie Graves, Mrs. Sargent, William Drake of Arkansas, Mrs. Helen Smart of Wyoming, and the members of the household.

CONGREGATIONAL HOME COMING

Next Thursday evening a Home Coming Social will be held in the lecture room at the Congregational church at 7:30 o'clock. A good time program is being arranged, and most cordial invitation is extended to all members and friends of the congregation who have been away this summer, to those who have stayed in town, to returned soldiers, to students, and newcomers in our midst.

LOCAL COMPANY MAY JOIN NATIONAL GUARD

Receives Invitation to Become Unit of Ninth Regiment—Medals to Be Awarded.

At the regular drill of Company C Monday evening an invitation was received from Col. Taylor, Ninth Regiment National Guard, to the company to become a unit of that regiment.

The company is at present a member of the Sixth Regiment Illinois Reserve Militia and was organized for home defense purposes during the war. There is a feeling among the men that it would be a good move to become a member of the National Guard. It is the desire of the officers of Company C to bring the company up to a higher percentage of members before anything is done toward making the change.

There is opportunity for a number of young men to join the company and become a unit of the National Guard. Anyone who wishes to enlist may talk the matter over with Lieut. Farrell at the Farrell bank or call at the armory next Monday evening.

The medals which were won at the recent practice on the rifle range will be awarded Monday evening and also the attendance medals. The following are the ten men making the highest scores at Springfield last week:

Blue Serge Suits

We have just received the lot of fine Blue Serges which we ordered last January, and in all probability these will be the last obtainable for fall and winter wear.

Blue Serge is the favorite suiting with hundreds of good dressers, and if you are contemplating a suit of such material we urge you to come in and leave your order now, as our supply will not last long.

This is the genuine all-wool, old time serge, and will prove satisfactory in all respects. Prices will be based on those paid by us last January. This will mean a great saving as the same material cannot be bought now except at several dollars per yard higher, and if it can be bought at all will be still higher next season.

Making a purely vegetable Medicine

1875—1919

In 1875, Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., gathered and dried the roots and herbs which she used in the now famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, from the fields and forests, — then steeped them on her kitchen stove and filled a few bottles at a time, to alleviate the suffering of her women friends, neighbors and acquaintances, and the success of this medicine was unparalleled.

After 44 Years

These illustrations show the present method by which vast quantities of this well-known remedy are produced and from exactly the same kind of roots and herbs used by Mrs. Pinkham in the beginning.

First—The various herbs used are of the finest quality, and gathered at the time their medicinal strength is the highest.

Second—After the herbs are properly ground and mixed, the medicinal properties are extracted by soaking in large stone jars, covered.

Third—Then the extract is drained through percolators, acting somewhat like a coffee percolator.

Fourth—To insure a thoroughly pure medicine, it is carefully pasteurized by heat in special apparatus, and bottled hot.

Throughout the entire process, from the crude herb to the finished medicine in bottle, cleanliness and exactness are the watch-words.

The Reliability of Testimonials Guaranteed

The testimonials published by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company come to them unsolicited. Never knowingly have they published an untruthful letter, never is a letter published without the written consent of the writer. The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and illness. It is easy to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; and their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

The city council of McKeesport tonight adopted a resolution giving Mayor George H. Lysie full authority to use his own judgment in handling the situation.

A crowd attempted to intimidate steel workers at the entrance of the Duquesne, Pa., plant of the Carnegie Steel company tonight during the change of day and night shifts. They were dispersed by Duquesne police.

Eight men were arrested. He was struck over the head with a hammer.

In Chicago District
Chicago, Sept. 22.—The big steel strike went into effect in the Chicago district today without disorder. Some of the largest plants were forced to close but others operated on a reduced scale thruout the day, and early tonight there was no material change in this situation.

The minor concerns were affected in about the same proportion as the big establishments. Whether the strike would increase in effectiveness was admittedly dependent largely upon the course of the engineers in the plants. Altho their international union had forbidden a strike most of the many members of the order went out with the steel workers. Tonight they were considering an order to return to work.

Company officials generally were reticent, and except in the cases of complete shutdowns would not give figures on the number of men at work. They estimated variously that from 70 to 90 per cent of their employees had remained loyal. At strike headquarters it was claimed that 67,500 men had obeyed the strike call, the total being distributed as follows:

Indiana Harbor, Ind.	11,000

ACCUSE WOMEN OF "NOT PLAYING" FAIR

New York, Sept. 22.—Women were accused of "not playing" fair by trying to hold on to privileges granted because of weakness and dependence while at the same time asserting the doctrine of equality with men, in an address delivered today before the International conference of Women Physicians by Dr. Clelia Mosher of Leland Stanford University.

Dr. Mosher declared the old idea that being a woman was a handicap must be given up.

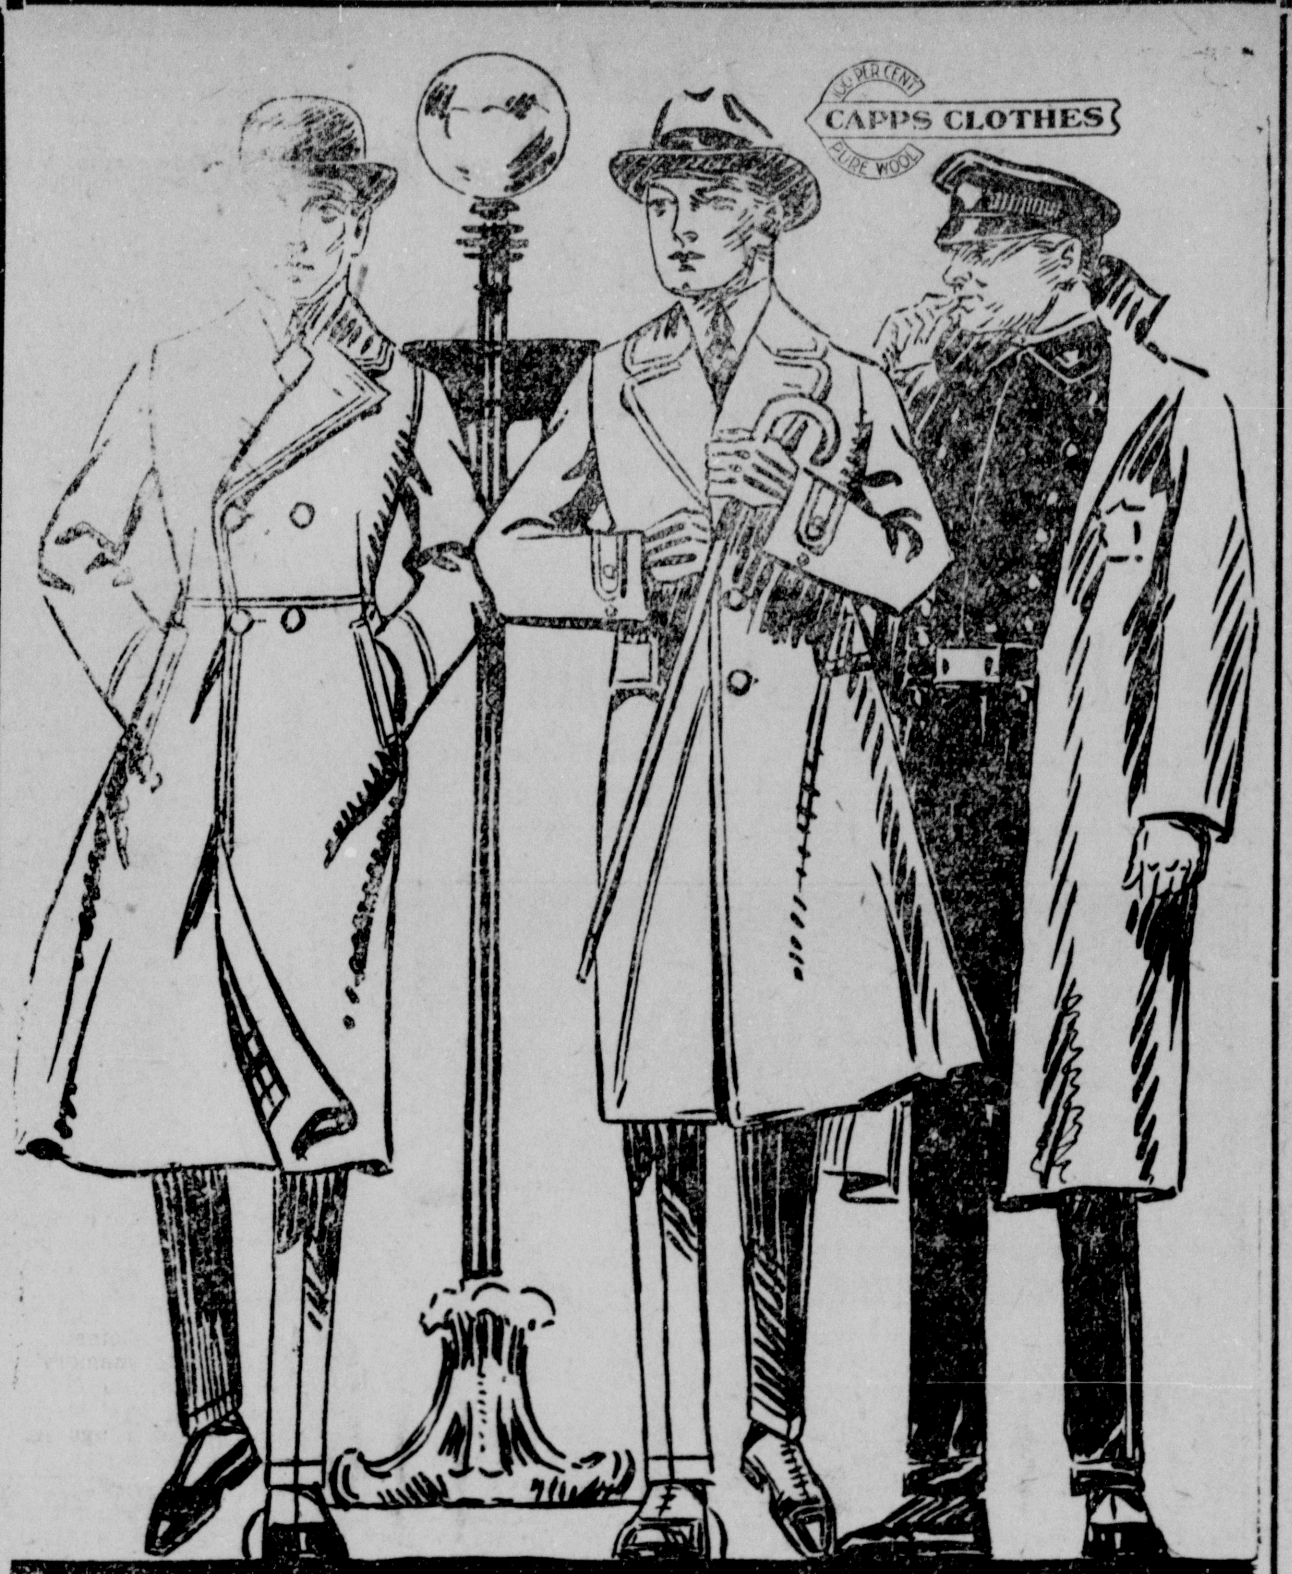

"We must go back to the old Greek ideal of physical perfection," Dr. Mosher said. "If we can put aside the old idea that being a woman is a handicap and bring up all girl children of today mentally and physically free, clothe them so that they may be hampered neither in time nor work there is no limitation on what we may expect from the coming generation."

Dr. Mosher added that women make the mistake of losing sight of their primary function as mothers. "No woman reaches her fullest development," she said, "who is not a wife and mother."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—George R. Wales of the civil service commission today told the senate postoffice sub-committee considering contested postmaster nominations that the postoffice department had not endeavored to exert any undue influence on the commission.

ISAAC F. TINDALL PASSED AWAY SUNDAY

Long Time Citizen Answers Final Summons—Was Successful Farmer For Many Years—Funeral Services This Afternoon.

Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, Isaac F. Tindall passed quietly to the other world after an illness of nine years, caused by paralysis. For six years he was at Our Saviour's hospital and for sixteen months his immediate attendant was Richard Hopper. Mr. Tindall was born in Philadelphia, Penn., February 22, 1828 and was the son of Isaac N. and Jeanette Ferguson Tindall of Quaker Origin. The father was a carpenter by trade and, like many others, decided to try his fortune in the then, far west and getting there was a far greater undertaking than getting to China is today.

The family started in 1835 travelling by the old fashioned stage, the canal and rivers finally arriving at Moredock and from that place to this vicinity where the father followed his trade until his death at the age of 82 years. In those early days subscription schools were the only kind known and the boys attended one in the village and when the family moved to the country the same method of instruction was followed, and that was practically all the education the boys enjoyed.

After working for various farmers for the munificent sum of $5.00 a month, Isaac and his brother Samuel went into partnership and carried on a small farm while the father continued at the bench. They worked till able to buy a team and in 1848 bought 240 acres of land and later 200 acres more, the latter from Col. Samuel Matthews. They worked together till 1867 when Isaac bought the interest of his brother and continued in the business until he was owner of nearly 1050 acres of land.

kind to his neighbors and a successful business man. He was good to his nephews and in many ways manifested his feelings toward them.

He is the last member of his immediate family. He leaves in this county two nephews, Edward Tindall residing near Arnold and Gregg Tindall near Antioch.

The remains were removed to the undertaking parlors of Williamson & Cody and prepared for burial.

The funeral will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Antioch church, seven miles east of the city.

Funerals

DeLong.

The funeral of the late Joshua DeLong was conducted at the Christian church in Woodson yesterday morning by Dr. G. W. Miller in the presence of a goodly number of sympathetic friends and a delegation of Matt Starr Post, G. A. R., and local veterans of the Civil War. The minister read the 39th Psalm and offered prayer and then the beautiful ritual of the Grand Army was carried out. The church was suitably decorated with antioch flags and emblems and many beautiful wreaths and flowers adorned the casket.

A choir consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gallagher, Misses Sarah J. Megginson and Dr. R. R. Jones with Miss Nettie Ezard accompanying on the piano sang during the services most acceptably. "Come Unto Me When Shadows Darkly Gather," "Nearer My God to Thee" and "O Think of the Home Over There."

The minister then said in brief:

"The beautiful ritual of the Grand Army of the Republic to which we have just listened is a noble tribute to the memory of a comrade who fought, as did these veterans before us that we today might enjoy the blessings of a free government."

"We have assembled here today to pay a last tribute of respect to the worthy and honored citizen, a man of sterling integrity and now all we can do for him is to honor his memory and emulate his virtues. When the fate of our beloved land was in the balance and existence of the nation was threatened he bared his breast to the bullets of the foe and fought gallantly that our land might remain the home of the free and he returned to enjoy the fruits of his labors."

"We cannot undertake to say why he was permitted to meet such a tragic end but we do know our departed brother was in the hands of Him who doeth all things well. I have many times talked with him of the days of the Civil War in which he did his part and but for him and others like him we should not be enjoying this free land today. He has not gone to oblivion but to a blessed reward. Two years ago he was talking to me and said then that when he was laid away he wanted me to speak. What is our life here? Short at best and full of trouble but we have the word of One who said, 'Because I live, ye shall live also. Sooner or later we too must meet the grim reaper and go to our reward then let us

"So live that when thy summons comes To join the innumerable caravan That moves To the place realms of shade Where each shall take His chamber in the silent halls of Death. Tho go not as the quarry slave at night, Scourged to his dungeon but sustained and soothed, By an unflinching trust approach thy grave. As one who wraps the drapery of his couch around him And lies down to pleasant dreams."

At the close of the service the remains were taken to Bethel cemetery near Murraville, the bearers being Edward Gallagher, Samuel Henry, James White, George Newman, James Spaenhower and Joseph McCallister.

Adams

Funeral services for Miss Martha Adams were held from the Old People's Home at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in charge of the Rev. Myron L. Pontius. Miss Lurine Dewees sang two solos. Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery.

J. J. Curtin of Chicago was in the city yesterday bringing back two of his little folks to their aunts, Misses Duffner who are tenderly supplying the place of a deceased mother.

Matrimonial

Jones-Williams.

William Jones of this city and Mrs. Venie Williams of Tuskegee, Okla., were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Monday evening by Rev. H. H. DeWitt at Second Baptist church parsonage. The ceremony was witnessed by only immediate relatives.

The groom is an employee of J. Capps and Sons and has been with them for many years and is held in high esteem by his employers. His bride is also well known here and they will have the best wishes of a large number of friends for a long and prosperous married life.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Cerdinal Mercier, the distinguished Belgian prelate, arrived in Washington late today, coming by trolley from Annapolis, where earlier in the day he spoke at the state house and also addressed the fourth class at the United States naval academy.

HOMEcoming DAY AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Interesting Exercises Were Held Throughout the Entire Day—Dinner Served at Noon.

Sunday at the First Baptist church was strong reminder of the genuine good fellowship of the disciples of the primitive Christian church for they assembled together in such a loving and generous manner that the hearts of all present were warmed thoroughly.

Sunday school was conducted at the usual hour and then came the morning discourse which was heard by a good sized audience tho the weather was so threatening.

"Israel's Birthright" was subject of the sermon, the speaker Rev. A. A. Todd, D. D., dwelling on the blessing bestowed of the children of Abraham as long as they were faithful to obey the precepts of their Divine Leader. He told how the laws and precepts there laid down had been a beacon light to all generations and in them today lies the hope of mankind. The greatest obligations devolve on the civilized world today for to it is offered salvation thru the birthright given by Christ.

The audience was then dismissed and repaired to the basement where a number of ladies had arranged for all. Tables beautifully decorated with flowers and plants looked very inviting. Each family had brought a basket well supplied with the good things of life and these were emptied and the contents spread on the tables—something more than a hundred enjoyed an excellent dinner.

Mrs. W. T. Spire was the head of the committee having in charge the tables and her force consisted of Mrs. Jerry Cox, Mrs. Gertrude Richardson, Mrs. L. B. Turner, Mrs. A. B. Williams and Miss Nettie Hayden.

Following the dinner was a social hour when all mingled in true family style after the manner of the early Christians who had all things in common and a good time was enjoyed by all.

All were called to order at 2:30 p. m. when Dr. Hardesty presided and first announcing several numbers by a chorus of men. The selections were old time melodies and much enjoyed by all present. Miss Lulu Hay, organist of the day, accompanied very satisfactorily and was much complimented on her work.

"Echoes from the Institute" was the topic discussed by Miss Mabel Withee who told of the E. Y. P. U. convention and the excellent work of Dr. Koehler who talked so acceptably at the gathering held recently.

The outlook for the Sunday school was discussed by Car Weber who gave an encouraging account of what may be expected in his branch of the work and was followed by the pastor who gave an outline of the work of the church for another year.

Dr. Hardesty was down on the program but so much time had been consumed it was deemed wise to postpone his address till another time.

The young people's meeting took place at 6:30 as usual and in the evening Dr. Todd especially addressed the young people of the church taking as his text the character and life of Daniel.

The entire exercises of the day were very uplifting and gratifying to all present and those present felt it had been good to be there.

FORMER RESIDENT VISITS JACKSONVILLE

Edward Higginson, Now a Citizen of Wichita, Kan., Renews Acquaintances in City Monday.

Edward Higginson of Wichita, Kansas, spent yesterday shaking hands with a few old time friends in Jacksonville. He was a clerk here in the dry goods store of Alexander McDonald on the spot now occupied by S. S. Knoles clothing store and left the place nearly fifty years ago. His wife is a daughter of the late Dr. L. M. Glover, one time pastor of the First Presbyterian church which stood on the southwest corner of West and West State streets. Mr. Higginson is a genial, whole-souled gentleman and is now a prominent wholesale merchant in the metropolis of southern Kansas and his son is in the firm with him.

He speaks well of the sunflower state while admitting its defects also. Oil has done great things for it and in Wichita he says there are many $50,000 residences erected by oil magnates. It is also a noteworthy fact that Kansas leads all states in the amount of bank deposits by farmers and in the number of automobiles belonging to that class.

RETURNS FROM VISIT AT SOUTHERN RESORT

Mrs. Thomas Doyle Home After Pleasant Stay at Asheville, N. C.

Mrs. Thomas Doyle has returned from a number of weeks delightfully enjoyed at the famous resort, Asheville, North Carolina. When she was ready to start some friends from Chicago invited her to accompany them in their car which she did and found the trip very enjoyable. They took two weeks for the journey, went first to the coast and then leisurely made their way north and westward. Mrs. Doyle left her friends at Bloomington and returned much pleased with her experience.

DR. F. A. NORRIS RECEIVES DISCHARGE

Will Visit Mother in Duluth, Minnesota—Will Also Visit at Mayo Hospital Before Returning to Jacksonville.

Dr. J. W. Hairgrove received a message yesterday from Dr. F. A. Norris announcing that he had received notice of his discharge from military service.

Dr. Norris will go to Duluth, Minn., for a visit with his mother. He also expects to spend a few days at Mayo Brothers hospital in Rochester, Minn. He probably will return to Jacksonville in about two weeks to resume his practice.

TOWN TALK

Now She Can't Tell About It

The young woman was evidently debating the advisability of walking beneath the ladder which rested against the entrance awning to a local store. Apparently she made up her mind to take a chance. Just a step before she reached the ladder, somebody from atop the awning pulled it up and out of sight. Wasn't it provoking?

Mark the Men, Too.

Fall brides evidently believed that their husbands should be compelled to wear a badge of marriage as well as themselves. Jewelers report a steady demand for large size wedding rings, along with orders for more dainty bands of ornamental platinum.

See High Apples

Unprecedented apple prices during the coming winter are predicted by local dealers. It is asserted that farmers are holding their apple crops for cider making which promises greater returns than they could hope to get by selling the fruit in its natural state.

Don't Believe in College Education.

Baggage men don't believe in college education during certain seasons. They can't see any sense whatever of students going away from home to seek a higher education and taking with them trunks as big as farm wagon bodies. If they would not exactly abolish colleges and universities they would at least abolish the trunks.

Beside the great amount of baggage that the local transfer people have had to handle in the past few days for the students, the state institutions, the School for the Blind and the School for the Deaf have received hundreds of pupils from all over the state and this great influx has given the baggage men additional cause for complaint against higher education.

Tailoring Unpopular

Complaint is made of a scarcity of tailors. American young men do not take kindly to a craft requiring patience and long hours. It is said, with immigration suspended, the supply does not equal the demand. Then again, many of the foreign tailors have amassed a competence and returned home. Team work has eliminated the long slack season, but the trade is not as attractive as others that can be learned in a short time. All of which, so the master tailors say, means still higher priced clothes.

Near-Beer Expressions

Instead of relying on the good will of their business nowadays, proprietors of near-beer establishments consider their chief asset to be the imagination-inspiring qualities of the bartenders. The degree of mystery which the drink dispensers can induce with their expressions has its effect on the price of the drink and the size of the clientele. Proprietors figure that the removal of the labels from near-beer bottles combined with a good 2 1/2 percent expression on the bartender's face is worth 25 cents a bottle, while a 4 percent expression can be capitalized for 75 cents or a dollar.

Mrs. James A. Parsons left the city last night after a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harrison King, and will again engage in social service work at Chicago Commons.

Wanted—Four good bricklayers at once. Price 87 1/2 cents an hour. Joseph DeGoveia.

RAINS COME TOO LATE TO HELP LOCAL GARDENS

Tomato Vines Stunted by Long Drought—Apples Still High—No Sugar for Canning of Fruit.

Local supplies for the table have been practically cut off because of the long continued drought and while the rains which began to fall Wednesday will help some of the late garden truck they came too late to add materially to the supplies for the fall table.

Green tomatoes probably will be carried along now either to larger growth or to maturity, but in many places vines have been so stunted by the long continued dry weather that little in the way of the late results can be expected.

Apples High.

In fruits Illinois apples are being offered at rather high prices but in lieu of anything else they are being bought fairly freely. Grimes Golden and Jonathans are the most common and they are selling at prices varying from seven to ten cents a pound. The New York stock which is already being shipped in is of good quality but the apples cost the dealer a pretty penny.

Pears For Canning.

The scarcity of sugar is naturally putting a strict limit on canning although there is little which is now available except pears. The Keifer pear with its woody meat is fairly plentiful in the country and some women who have a little sugar are putting up preserves but otherwise the fruit in market is decidedly high for canning purposes.

Dealers offer little hope of relief from the sugar shortage and housewives are being urged to use it very sparingly. It is certain that the shortage is reducing the fruit sale very materially.

Cut Watermelon Demand.

Cool days and nights have reduced the demand for watermelons and the drought also reduced both the size and number of melons offered for sale. They are very generally selling at three cents a pound at the stores, two cents a pound at the patches if one wants to drive out for them.

Staples are very generally about the same price although eggs are higher than last week. The egg shippers say that the celebration of the feast of the Passover by the Jews Sept. 22 has caused the usual heavy demand for eggs at this time, particularly in the east. Deliveries of eggs here are extremely light, so light in fact that the heavy buyers say none are coming in. The price ranges from 48 cents to 55 cents a dozen. Creamery butter is selling from 57 to 62 cents.

Potatoes Continue High.

Potatoes remain high and it seems likely that the price will drop, but little until the northern stock come in later in the fall. The price now is generally five cents a pound, 70 to 75 cents a peck, although some stores are quoting considerably lower. Sweet potatoes are 10 to 12 1/2 cents a pound, usually the lower price prevailing.

Tomatoes of not extra good quality are eight cents a pound, 20 cents a basket, $2.25 to $2.50 a bushel, and scarce.

SHRINE TO STAGE BIG BALL SEPT. 25

Ansar Event Will be Held at Springfield Arsenal With the Gorgeous Setting of an Imperial Ceremony.

Commanding and dignified, illustrious Potentate George F. Van Cleave, of the Ansar Shrine, will hold forth on his throne of splendor at the ball to be given Thursday evening, Sept. 25th, in Springfield. Surrounded by the Divan and the Durbar, the illustrious potentate will appear just as he does in the privacy of the temple when the Shriners meet alone. And the conventions of the services in the temple will be witnessed for a few moments by those who attend the ball.

The illustrious potentate will be surrounded by the Divan, which consists of the potentate's official family. These twenty people will be gorgeously clothed in their temple robes, as will be the potentate. The Durbar, made up of seventy-five men, who act as attendants, will also be in temple robes and will attend the illustrious potentate. None of the gorgeous settings used for the services at the temple will be omitted. Exquisite materials made into gorgeous robes are only a small part of the beauty of the scene.

When the hour of the ball, nine o'clock arrives, the illustrious potentate will take his throne. For the next ten minutes following, the patrol of seventy men will drill just as they do at the opening of a Shrine meeting. They will drill in time to the music of the Ansar brass band. After the drill a few minutes more will be devoted to the carrying on a formal Shrine meeting.

Case of Peter Haxton, Charged With Illegal Liquor Selling Continued to Next Term of Court—Fox vs. Bourn Case Heard Monday.

In the County court Monday, Judge C. E. Martin of Virginia, presiding, the case of Peter Haxton, charged with illegal liquor selling, was continued until the next term of court. The continuance was granted because of the fact that Haxton is now ill and unable to appear in court. The case of Noah T. Fox vs. Walter Bourn, assault with a deadly weapon, also came up for hearing. Mr. Fox signed a jury waiver and the defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

SMALL BURGLARY
Some time between Saturday evening and Sunday noon sneak thieves entered the shoe store of Mathis, Kamm & Shibe and abstracted from the cash drawer between $12 and $14 and three pairs of shoes. Entrance was effected thru the rear window but evidently the miscreants were not in much need of shoes or saw none suited to their taste.

We desire to thank the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us in our recent great bereavement through the sudden death of our father, Joshua Long; also for the flowers and expressions of sympathy.

THE CHILDREN.

NEW TEACHER ADDED
Surely there is no danger of race suicide in Jacksonville judging by the number of children in the second ward. The Lafayette school has increased so that an additional teacher has been necessary and Miss Esther Wetzel was chosen and began work yesterday morning.
